The Insurer Challenge

Today's disbursement process demands that insurers physically coordinate payment amounts with all parties, dedicate resources to supporting customers and filling out paperwork, and ultimately mail or cash a check to recipients, which may then need to be disbursed to other parties.

The Solution: ACI Speedpay

The ACI Speedpay solution gives insurers a powerful way to save and increase satisfaction with simple, digital options. Through real-time disbursements, parties receive their disbursements as soon as they are issued. The digitized process removes the friction of traditional disbursement methods by drastically reducing paperwork and delays.
