

Transforming Underwriting for P&C Insurers: Indico Data + Guidewire

The integration between Indico Data and Guidewire represents a significant advancement for the global Property & Casualty (P&C) insurance industry. Indico Data's Intelligent Intake Solution, seamlessly integrated with Guidewire's PolicyCenter, offers insurers an unprecedented ability to handle unstructured data in the submissions process, transforming it into structured, actionable insights. This integration addresses the industry's long-standing challenge of manual data processing, which is time-consuming, error-prone, and a bottleneck to operational efficiency and revenue growth.

Unleashing the Power of Intelligent Intake

Indico Data's solution gives insurers a competitive edge by automating the extraction and structuring of data from diverse document types, including complex layouts, tables, and multiple languages, thus eliminating manual data entry into the Guidewire platform. Unlike other solutions in the market, Intelligent Intake is characterized by its cutting-edge flexibility, collaboration-focused approach, and industry-leading expertise.
